RESIDENTIAL LIFE
FIRST YEAR HOUSING OPTIONS

TOUSSAINT HALL

Located on our newest residential campus, the Upper Quad, Toussaint Hall, named after Pierre Toussaint, is a suite-style building. Named after Bishop Joseph Duchesne, each floor of the building has a common area, two-bedroom/four-person pods with a shared bathroom, a modified suite, and a shared kitchen and laundry. The building is staffed with approximately 6 RSAs.

Roncalli Hall

Located on our newest residential campus, the Upper Quad, Roncalli Hall, named after Angelo Roncalli – Pope John XXIII, the building is a suite-style residence hall that houses over 400 students. Each floor of the building has a common area, two-bedroom/four-person pods with a shared bathroom, a modified suite, and a shared kitchen and laundry. The building is staffed with approximately 16 RSAs.

Roncalli 1st Floor

The first floor of the building has a shared common area and laundry. There is a CrossFit gym on the first floor. Both are accessible to students as well.

Music Learning Community.

The music learning community is comprised of students majoring in music and located in two of our residence halls. We urge all students to take part in their learning and development.

There are 2 academic success advisors, 1 academic success support personnel, and 2 academic success coordinators for students to get to know each other and prepare for their academic success.

MERTON HALL

Located in the heart of campus, Merton Hall houses over 160 freshmen. Rooms are shared by four students and accommodate the number of students assigned to the room. Sacred Heart does not have forced triples. All of our rooms are of commensurate size and space to foster friendships with their roommates and floormates. Living with a roommate is an important part of the college living experience. We urge all students to consider to be designated for a double room is generally determined by deposit date. Early decision students are guaranteed the option to live in a double, but may also select a triple if desired.

Most students live in either a double or triple room.
